ANTARCTIC GIFTS WITH A CHARITABLE STORY

CATALOGUE

THANK YOU

Thank you for your interest in the UK Antarctic Heritage Trust.

We are a charity conserving seven historic sites in Antarctica and working to inspire more people to discover, value and protect this special wilderness.

We offer a range of special Antarctic products with a charitable story.

HOW YOUR SUPPORT HELPS

By placing an order, you will help to support seasonal conservation in Antarctica, preserving vulnerable buildings which tell amazing stories. Since 1993, we have been working to conserve and care for these sites in order to make them safe, secure and accessible for visitors around the world. It is a challenging task which is dependent on donations and philanthropic support.

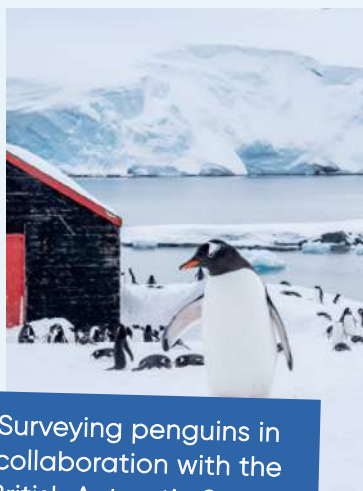

Running the "Penguin Post Office" museum for visitors at Port Lockroy

Engaging tens of thousands of children and adults in Antarctic education and community programmes

Providing Antarctic advice, protection and policy guidance at Government level

Surveying penguins in collaboration with the British Antarctic Survey

Repairing six special buildings in spectacular and challenging landscapes

Delivering complex Antarctic conservation seasons

Leading on the conservation management for Shackleton's ship, Endurance

HOW TO ORDER

We understand as well as anyone that Antarctic operations involve collaboration and flexibility.

1

To place or discuss an order, please choose your favourites from the catalogue, then email us. Include the item name, code and quantity, along with your business name, preferred delivery location and timings.

2

We will get back to you with details on pricing, availability and timescales for delivery.

3

We confirm the order together, then issue a PO and invoice. Payment is via BACS.

4

We'll get working! We also welcome any feedback on our offer, or ideas for how we might work together in the future.

Friendly note: As a charity, we can't always hold large quantities of stock and some of our pieces are made to order. Please contact us and we will advise on current availability and delivery times.

PORT LOCKROY

Every year, we send a team to open Port Lockroy, the world's southernmost post office, AKA the Penguin Post Office. Throughout the austral summer, our team welcomes visitors from around the world to our living museum and post office. Proceeds pay for the operation of Port Lockroy and help safeguard other heritage sites in Antarctica.
